

Rev. Terry Hershey

Information for Events Seminars / Conferences

Terry Hershey has served as a Protestant minister, and is now a writer and landscape designer on Vashon Island, near Seattle, Washington. He speaks throughout the US and Canada on relationships and spirituality and gardening. Terry writes and teaches about being intoxicated with this world, embracing the sacred present. His newest book, The Power of Pause: becoming more by doing less, invites us to allow our souls catch up with our bodies. Terry's seminars and lectures are about celebrating life, by hearing the music, not just playing the right notes. Mostly he loves to dance with his son, and watch bald eagles ride the currents in the canyon behind his house.

What others say. . .

A story-teller on a marvelous scale, it is remarkable the way Terry sets an environment in which people easily enter into the process of stretching their thinking and unselfconsciously share their ideas. Clearly, everyone is eager to learn how to let their "souls catch up with their bodies." On beautiful days -- when many guests would have taken to the trails right away -- the porches were filled with guests who would not fail to sit in on discussions in the morning and the late afternoon. We always had to add additional chairs. There were a number of doctors present this week. They eagerly went deep into sharing with all of us. They would even postpone the usual pre-dinner showers and perking up to not miss a minute of the group gatherings during Terry's 2005 visit to The Swag. I have received numerous thank you e-mails and notes of appreciation for the opportunity The Swag offered to spend time with Terry. Deener Matthews. Owner/Innkeeper, The Swag Country Inn, Waynesville, NC (www.theswag.com)

Terry, In a short amount of time, you did what Jesus did so well - told a few stories, reminded us of the Father, and left our hearts changed forever. You left us with hearts filled with laughter and lumps in our throats from your tender stories. You inspired us to stop and treasure the moment and not allow "if onllys" to deter our gratitude. We are deeply grateful to you for the time and effort you took to come to Sts. Simon & Jude Church to share your beautiful insights into the music of life. May the joy you give to others return to you one-hundredfold. Gratefully on behalf of all, Patsi Wagner Pastoral Associate, Sts Simon & Jude Parish, Huntington Beach, CA

"Our parish of nearly 5,000 families is full of over-achievers ... many of them just plain burnt out. Terry brought his message of slowing down and letting our souls catch up with our bodies ... and did it ever hit home! His sessions, both morning and evening drew large crowds, wanting to find out about how to slow down their over-active lives ... and have a laugh in the process. Terry Hershey attracted crowds both young, old and in between. All had their eyes opened. They heard that it was OK to take ourselves less seriously, to slow down and to dance!" Deacon Charles Boyer, Our Lady Queen of Angels, Newport Beach, CA

I would like to take a moment to once again express my appreciation for all your time and preparation in making our Couple Night Out event such a fun and uplifting evening. Those who attended had a wonderful evening and thoroughly appreciated your humor and heartfelt reflections on making a relationship last. We enjoyed having you share your gift with our community and hope to have you back again sometime in the future! Becky Loewe, Community Health Ed and Resource Center, Bryan LGH Medical Center, Lincoln, NE

You have a wonderful effect on the St. John's community. Spirits have been visibly raised, and people are seriously reexamining their lives. Thank you for your ministry. Dr. Hal Wiley, St. Johns, Tampa, FL

Terry Hershey has a gift for people and storytelling. Our garden club has hosted hundreds of speakers over the years and I would put Terry Hershey on the top of the list. His presentation to our group was truly a joyous occasion.
